

WAMAKERSVALLEI BAIN'S WAY

— SINCE 1941 —

The vineyards climb the very slopes of Bain's Kloof, the picturesque mountain pass on the outskirts of Wellington. Appropriately, one of the wine ranges is now called Bain's Way, paying tribute to Andrew Bain, the prince of road makers who created what became known as "The Gateway to the North".

The Bain's Way range has been designed as an everyday drinking wine. White wines include: Bain's Way Sauvignon Blanc, Chenin Blanc, Chardonnay and Viognier. Red Wines include: Bain's Way Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinotage, and Bain's Way Shiraz.

Bain's Way enjoys IPW, Wieta and Fair Trade accreditations
